

Full time/Part time Leisure Travel Advisor position available in our Albuquerque, New Mexico and El Paso, TX office. Two years leisure travel experience preferred. Sales, customer service, and computer skills are required. Spanish speaking a plus. Opportunity for advancement as well as health, vacation, and travel benefits.

Join our team of dedicated Travel Advisors who are passionate about creating memorable travel experiences for our clients. As a Travel Advisor, you will have the opportunity to showcase your expertise in the industry while providing exceptional customer service. We offer competitive compensation packages and opportunities for career growth within our organization.

If you have a passion for travel and enjoy helping others plan their dream vacations, we would love to hear from you.

Note: This job description is intended to provide a general overview of the position. It is not an exhaustive list of all responsibilities, qualifications, or working conditions associated with the role.

Please send your resume to Sherry@rgtravel.com.